Note: Mathias is referred to as a "well to do German" in the Draper papers. This was from Mathias's grandson, born in 1763, when he was 80 years old. This is 182 years after the immigration of Heinrich Jochem and represents a six generation removal from that event. In heritage, Mathias was in fact more German and German-Swiss than he was anything else, and the prevalence of Palatinate Germans with the Jochem/Yocum surname, who were also in the flood of pioneers moving from PA into the VA backcountry would make an assumption of German background that much easier. Compounding this assumption is the fact that Dutch itself is a Germanic language, and the very word "Dutch" is so similar to "Deutsch" that many PA Germans themselves became known as the PA Dutch -- a reverse error. Mathias bought land in PA, but not liking the laws there, he moved his family to the north neck of VA and settled on land granted to Lord Fairfax. He was in the first group to bring wagons down the South Branch of the Potomac River and over the mountains into what is now known as West Virginia. They settled there about 1745. Mathias was in Greenbrier Co., VA, in 1751, and in Augusta Co., VA, in 1756. Place of death given as Muddy Creek, Greenbrier, WV. Mathias is reported to have built the first cabin in KY. His will was written in 1780 and recorded in Lincoln Co., KY.

22. William Yocom (*Mathias*⁴, *Francis*³, *Mathias*², *Heinrick*¹) was born about 1750 in Pennsylvania¹ and died after 1799 in Maybe, , Montgomery, KY.

Descendants of Heinrick Jochem

General Notes: From this point back, the Yocom family does not have much firm documentation.

Clay County, Indiana History, 1880-1984, comp. by Clay County Historical Society, 1984.

"Apparently two brothers (maybe more) arrived in Clay County, Indiana. One was John Yocom born in 1747, probably in Virginia, who died in Clay County, Indiana in 1839 at the home of Samuel Reffert. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War from August County, Virginia, serving with George Rogers Clark in the Northwest. He presumably lived in Montgomery County, Kentucky until 1833, when he moved to Clay County and lived in the area of the old county seat, Bowling Green. His wife's given name was Mary, and while there is no proof, some believe that she was a Downing. He was the son of Matthias Yocom and his wife, Eleanor See, and he was the father of eleven children, some of which [sic] moved to Clay County. His brother, William who was born in 1750, married and had children. His wife's name is unknown, and some claim that she, too, was a Downing. His son William, born 21 Jan 1775 in Virginia, married Sarah Stewart and raised a family in Clay county. He died 4 Nov 1840 and is buried in the Billtown Cemetery west of Brazil. John Yocom born 1747 Virginia. Service--enlisted May 1780 and served 6 mos. as privated [sic] in Capt. George Jackson's Company Col. Morgan's Virginia Regt. Later served 2 mos. guarding the frontier under Capt. Rowland Thomson. Proof -- Pension Record. Buried on the John Foulke Farm south of Brazil, Ind. Stone placed by the Clay County Commissioners."

Do you happen to have anything to clarify the relationship between the Yocum and Stewart families who were living near Mt. Sterling, Montgomery Co, KY around 1800 and then moved to the area near Brazil, Clay Co, IN about 1833?

William A. Stewart (b. ?, d. c. 1842 Clark Co, IL) married the widow Eliza B. (Yocum) Smith, d/o Jacob Yocum and Nancy Keeton, (b. 11 Nov 1804 Montgomery Co, KY, d. 10 Aug 1884 Fulton Co, IL). [William Stewart and Eliza B. Yocum are my ancestors, so I am particularly interested in finding William's ancestors. I already have a fair amount on the Yocum clan.] Several generous people have been able to send me some clues which have led to the compilation of the following information:

Eliza's first husband, George Washington Smith, died of cholera in July 1833, probably near Mt. Sterling, Montgomery Co, KY. Their children were:

William Ashley Smith, (b. 1831-died 1862 Vicksburg, MS, buried Vicksburg, MS);

Benjamin F. Smith, (b. 15 Jan 1833-d. 23 Dec 1912 New Philadelphia, IL)

Descendants of Heinrick Jochem

Apparently shortly after or during the 1833 cholera epidemic in Montgomery Co, KY a bunch of the Yocum & Stewart families moved from Montgomery Co, KY to Clay Co, IN.

Eliza B. (Yocum) Stewart probably married William Stewart sometime before 1839 when their 3 children were born near Brazil, Clay Co, IN:

Samuel A. Stewart, (b. 1 Jun 1839-d. 6 Feb 1910 New Philadelphia, IL);

Jacob Preston Stewart, (b. 3 Jun 1840-d. 15 Jun 1916 Wyaconda, MO);

Nancy Adeline Stewart, (b. 20 Jan 1842-d. 20 Dec 1915 Adair, McDonough Co, IL)-my ancestor!

William & Eliza B. Stewart and the children moved from Clay Co, IN to Clark Co, IL where William A. Stewart died in 1842. The widow and her 5 children moved back to Clay Co, IN. In 1849 she and her 5 children moved to McDonough Co, IL and then in 1853 she married widower Daniel Baughman in 1853 in Fulton Co, IL. She remained in Fulton Co, IL the rest of her life.

I ran across the 1884 Historical and Biographical for Counties of Clay and Owen, Indiana at the Denver Public Library. [They don't have much on Clay Co.] In the book it mentions Francis B. Yocum, b. 6 Dec 1807 Montgomery Co, KY, "the sixth and one living of twelve children of William and Sarah (Stewart) Yocum, the father emigrating to Clay County, Ind., in 1833..."

Sally (or Sarah) (Stewart) Yocum (25 Oct 1778-Oct 1837) is buried at Billtown Cem, Posey Twp, Clay Co, IN. William and Sarah (Stewart) Yocum had a daughter who also married a Stewart, and a son, John Stewart Yocum, who married Elizabeth Stewart.

[The same book also has a biographical sketch on Levi G. S. Stewart, b. 21 Oct 1821 in Orange Co, IN as one of 9 children of John and Sarah (Sample) Stewart. Levi married an Elizabeth Yocum of KY. Samuel M. Stewart, a brother of Levi, is also listed.]

The 1840 census for Clay Co, IN shows that Francis B. Yocum, John S. Yocum (it is difficult to read and might be "Wm"), and a William Stewart were all in Posey Twp, Clay Co, OH. James Stewart, John Stewart, Sarah Stewart, and Charles Stewart were in Lewis Twp, Clay Co, IN.

Do you happen to have anything that might help clarify the relationship between these folks? I suspect that they are all related. Sally (Sarah) Stewart/and or some of these other Stewart folk may be related to my William Stewart. (Hoping!)

Eliza B. (Yocum) Smith Stewart Baughman's father, Jacob Yocum, d. 1833 in Montgomery Co, KY from cholera. [H.C. Brown's book on the Yocum families says he died in Clay Co, IN in 1847.]

Eliza B.'s mother, Nancy (Keeton) Yocum, died in 1857 in IL (probably McDonough Co or Fulton Co, IL).

Jacob Yocum's father, John Yocum, died in 4 Sep 1839 in Clay Co, IN.

Any help locating the parents/family of William A. Stewart would be greatly appreciated! I am also looking for the place/date of the marriage of William A. Stewart and Eliza B. (Yocum) Smith.

Also, who were the ancestors/parents of Sally (Sarah) Stewart who married Francis B.

Note: According to my family notes, there were two Matthew Wilson's, elder and son who came to US together with another son, named Henry. The elder Matthew was the "preacher of the Gospel," whose wife was known only as "Downing." Most trees only include one Matthew m. to Margaret Dowing, but sometimes leave a long gap inbetween generations as if there may have been two Matthews. According to the notes the elder Matthew and his wife were attacked by Indians and scalped while the two boys, Matthew and Henry, remained hidden under the house. Cannot verify the story, but it has been repeated by several different relatives.

Noted events in his life were:

- Biography:
 William Francis Yocom, attorney at law, Staunton, Ind., was born in Dick Johnson Township September 14, 1847, and is the fourth in a family of ten children, nine of whom are living. His father, Isom Yocum, came to this county from Kentucky in 1832. His early education was limited to the common schools, but being ambitious and persevering he gained by hard study a superior education. He has been a teacher in the public schools of this county fifteen years, and is highly esteemed. In 1872, he began the study of law, and in 1874 was admitted to the bar, and commenced practicing. March 19, 1874, he married Mary J. Reeder, it being her twentieth birthday.

They have five children-- Clarence Libbert, born October 16, 1874; Henry Crawford, December 2, 1875; Roswell Dale, December 18, 1877; Maud D., October 6, 1879; Bessie Pearl, April 31, 1883. Mr. Yocom is identified with the political interests of the Democratic party, being one of their most prominent workers. He was Deputy Sheriff of Clay County from 1875 to 1877. While he was holding this office, the county records were moved from Bowling Green to Brazil. Since 1877, he has practiced law in Staunton.' (Counties of Clay and Owen, Indiana. Historical and Biographical. Charles Blanchard, Editor, 1884.)

'William F. Yocum, native of Clay county, son of Isom Yocum, born September 14, 1847; acquired a good common school education, and taught successfully in the public schools of this county and in the state of Illinois for a period of ten or twelve years. In 1872 he began reading law and two years later was admitted to the bar. On the 19th day of March, 1874, he married Mary J. Reeder, on her twentieth birthday, an assistant teacher in the Staunton schools, of which he was the principal. For the years 1875-'76 he was deputy sheriff under his uncle, Jesse Yocum. Succeeding this term of service he engaged in the practice of law at Staunton. In 1890-'91 he served for a time as deputy auditor under his brother, Matthew R. Yocum. He died July 13, 1892, aged 44 years, 9 months and 29 days, survived by his wife and five children-- three sons and two daughters. Mr. Yocum was a man of good native ability and liberal acquirements, much above the average as an instructor and disciplinarian.'

- Newspaper Articles: Jun 2004, Lockheed Aeronautics, Lancaster, Los Angeles, CA. From Lockheed Newsletter, June 2004:

The Aeronautics Star is printed for readers like John Yocom, perhaps better known at Site 2 as John FOD. John joined Lockheed in 1970 and since then has worked on the L-1011, F-117, A-4 and P-3, and subsequently transferred to the U-2 program where he first worked as a mechanic and then became a crew chief in production flight and flight test. Following his recovery from serious accident in January 2001, he returned to Site 2 as the Tool Control FOD Coordinator to oversee FOD control on the U-2 program.

"FOD is a very serious issue. In our business, it's one of the most critical things we have to think about on a daily basis. It boils down to eliminating risk to the lives of men and women - it's a feeling I can't describe other than 'gut wrenching'. To eliminate FOD is everyone's duty - to accept responsibility to constantly step up the standard to ensure we stop FOD. Our customers deserve nothing less. It's a reputation we need to uphold, and it's critical to the company's bottom line."

Known for his vigilance on FOD awareness and prevention, John's co-workers convinced him to have his badge name changed to read JOHN FOD. Site 2 can boast more than 15 FOD-free years. Incidentally - John is not related to Mammy (Pansy) and Pappy (Lucifer) Yokum, the staple characters in Al Capp's popular Li'l Abner comic strip from the early '40s.

medical school, taking the requisite coursework and exploring different aspects of the medical profession. Graduation did not bestow him with firm conviction over this possible path, so he deferred his decision and moved to San Francisco to join his friend David Clements. He worked for five years in advertising at Goldberg Moser O'Neill and Organic, Inc. in San Francisco. Feeling unfulfilled, he circled back on his college education and decided to pursue science as a profession. Mike joined the Interdepartmental Ph.D. Program for Neuroscience at the University of California, Los Angeles in 2002, where he studies the genetic bases of human cognitive specializations. He was married to Gwendolyn Voris Marker on June 18, 2005 in San Francisco. Mike and Gwen currently live in Santa Monica, California.

Note: According to my family notes, there were two Matthew Wilson's, elder and son who came to US together with another son, named Henry. The elder Matthew was the "preacher of the Gospel," whose wife was known only as "Downing." Most trees only include one Matthew m. to Margaret Dowing, but sometimes leave a long gap inbetween generations as if there may have been two Matthews. According to the notes the elder Matthew and his wife were attacked by Indians and scalped while the two boys, Matthew and Henry, remained hidden under the house. Cannot verify the story, but it has been repeated by several different relatives.

Do you happen to have anything to clarify the relationship between the Yocom and Stewart families who were living near Mt. Sterling, Montgomery Co, KY around 1800 and then moved to the area near Brazil, Clay Co, IN about 1833?

William A. Stewart (b. ?, d. c. 1842 Clark Co, IL) married the widow Eliza B. (Yocom) Smith, d/o Jacob Yocom and Nancy Keeton, (b. 11 Nov 1804 Montgomery Co, KY, d. 10 Aug 1884 Fulton Co, IL). [William Stewart and Eliza B. Yocom are my ancestors, so I am particularly interested in finding William's ancestors. I already have a fair amount on the Yocom clan.] Several generous people have been able to send me some clues which have led to the compilation of the following information:

Eliza's first husband, George Washington Smith, died of cholera in July 1833, probably near Mt. Sterling, Montgomery Co, KY. Their children were:

William Ashley Smith, (b. 1831-died 1862 Vicksburg, MS, buried Vicksburg, MS);

Benjamin F. Smith, (b. 15 Jan 1833-d. 23 Dec 1912 New Philadelphia, IL)

Apparently shortly after or during the 1833 cholera epidemic in Montgomery Co, KY a bunch of the Yocom & Stewart families moved from Montgomery Co, KY to Clay Co, IN.

Eliza B. (Yocom) Stewart probably married William Stewart sometime before 1839 when their 3 children were born near Brazil, Clay Co, IN:

Samuel A. Stewart, (b. 1 Jun 1839-d. 6 Feb 1910 New Philadelphia, IL);

Jacob Preston Stewart, (b. 3 Jun 1840-d. 15 Jun 1916 Wyaconda, MO);

Nancy Adeline Stewart, (b. 20 Jan 1842-d. 20 Dec 1915 Adair, McDonough Co, IL)-my ancestor!

William & Eliza B. Stewart and the children moved from Clay Co, IN to Clark Co, IL where William A. Stewart died in 1842. The widow and her 5 children moved back to Clay Co, IN. In 1849 she and her 5 children moved to McDonough

Descendants of David Stewart

Co, IL and then in 1853 she married widower Daniel Baughman in 1853 in Fulton Co, IL. She remained in Fulton Co, IL the rest of her life.

I ran across the 1884 Historical and Biographical for Counties of Clay and Owen, Indiana at the Denver Public Library. [They don't have much on Clay Co.] In the book it mentions Francis B. Yocum, b. 6 Dec 1807 Montgomery Co, KY, "the sixth and one living of twelve children of William and Sarah (Stewart) Yocum, the father emigrating to Clay County, Ind., in 1833..."

Sally (or Sarah) (Stewart) Yocum (25 Oct 1778-Oct 1837) is buried at Billtown Cem, Posey Twp, Clay Co, IN. William and Sarah (Stewart) Yocum had a daughter who also married a Stewart, and a son, John Stewart Yocum, who married Elizabeth Stewart.

[The same book also has a biographical sketch on Levi G. S. Stewart, b. 21 Oct 1821 in Orange Co, IN as one of 9 children of John and Sarah (Sample) Stewart. Levi married an Elizabeth Yocum of KY. Samuel M. Stewart, a brother of Levi, is also listed.]

The 1840 census for Clay Co, IN shows that Francis B. Yocum, John S. Yocum (it is difficult to read and might be "Wm"), and a William Stewart were all in Posey Twp, Clay Co, OH. James Stewart, John Stewart, Sarah Stewart, and Charles Stewart were in Lewis Twp, Clay Co, IN.

Do you happen to have anything that might help clarify the relationship between these folks? I suspect that they are all related. Sally (Sarah) Stewart/and or some of these other Stewart folk may be related to my William Stewart. (Hoping!)

Eliza B. (Yocum) Smith Stewart Baughman's father, Jacob Yocum, d. 1833 in Montgomery Co, KY from cholera. [H.C. Brown's book on the Yocum families says he died in Clay Co, IN in 1847.]

Eliza B.'s mother, Nancy (Keeton) Yocum, died in 1857 in IL (probably McDonough Co or Fulton Co, IL).

Jacob Yocum's father, John Yocum, died in 4 Sep 1839 in Clay Co, IN.

Any help locating the parents/family of William A. Stewart would be greatly appreciated! I am also looking for the place/date of the marriage of William A. Stewart and Eliza B. (Yocum) Smith.

Also, who were the ancestors/parents of Sally (Sarah) Stewart who married Francis B.

My Yocum page is www.greggkinney.com/yocum.htm and my Stewart Page is www.greggkinney.com/stewart.htm

Sarah married John William Yocum, son of William Yocum and Unknown, about 1798 in Kentucky. John was born 21 Jan 1775 in Augusta, VA, died 4 Nov 1840 in Clay, IN at age 65, and was buried in Nov 1840 in Williamstown (Billstown) Cemetery, Posey Twp, Clay, IN.

Descendants of George Washington Reeder

First Generation

85. George Washington Reeder, son of George Reeder and Unknown, was born about 1790 in Tennessee and died about 1843 in Pike, IL about age 53.

General Notes: Reeder Newsletter, 1986, submitted by Jay G. Lamb, Box 745, Bartlesville, OK, 74005.

"Included in information received from Mrs. G. A. Reeder by Charles Wells Reeder and included in his collection at the Ohio State Library, Columbus, Ohio is the following: One Reeder came from Germany and settled in Tennessee - Had a Powder mill - was blown up - had 2 sons, Geo. and Wm. Wm. stayed in Jonesborough Tenn. Geo. moved to Ind. - had 4 sons. Thomas (4), Wm (6), & John (4), & Joseph (9 all in Cass Mo.)

The origin of this information is not known. Thomas did have four children by his first marriage. William and John did have the number of children shown; however, Joseph had 12 children. Interestingly Elizabeth, daughter of George reported to have said that her father sometimes spoke German to entertain the children, but would not allow them to speak German.

A grandson of William, son of George, wrote to Mr. Truman A. Reeder of Feb. 14, 1956 the following: Grandfather knew that he had a relative by the name of Jesse Reeder that drowned in the Deleware [sic] R. while on a fishing trip. Jesse was in the line of uncle or great uncle I can't remember which. If I remember correctly, Jesse [sic] father was a Charles Reeder.

The "History of Cass and Bates Counties, Missouri", 1883, page 544 states that George Reeder, father of Joseph M. Reeder, was a native of Georgia. However, census enumerations of George Reeder's children indicate that their father was born in N. C., Tenn. and Va.

Washington Co., Tenn. records copied by the W.P.A. include tax lists, 1814-1819. George Reeder, 1 WP [white person], is listed in Capt. Brown's Co. for 1817 through 1819.

Washington Co., Tenn., Will Book 1, Page 197 and actual will at the courthouse and County Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions 1829-1831, copied by the W.P.A., show that Elizabeth Webb's will dated 23 Dec. 1827 was witnessed by John Rose, George Reeder and Allen T. Rose. The will was proven in court on 13 July 1829 by oaths of John Rose and Allen T. Rose, two of the subscribing witnesses. In Carter Co., Tenn. on 12 Jan. 1811, a Mary Reeder married John Rose. He was likely the above John Rose and the one later in Putnam Co., Ind. and Clay Co., Ind. Mary Reeder, his wife, could have been related to George Reeder.

Microfilm of records for Deer Creek Church, Putnam Co., Ind., at the Indiana State Library, Indianapolis, Ind., indicate that Jane Reeder [sic] became a member in November 1829. Later (probably in 1831) John Rose and Polly Rose became members. Records of Mill Creek Church, Putnam Co., Ind. owned by Mr. Worth M. Buis, Indianapolis, Ind., show that Jane Reeder joined that new church in April 1830 and that she had joined another church (New Providence Baptist Church) approximately February [sic] 1840.

Records of the Former General Land Office, now in the National Archives show cash certificate file numbers 31307 for the NE 1/4 of NW 1/4 Sec. 36, Twp 13N, R 3W and 32398 for NW 1/4 of NW 1/4 Sec. 36, Twp 13N, R 3W, both in the name of George Reeder, dated Dec. 29, 1836 and Aug. 21, 1837, respectively, issued at Crawfordsville, Ind., for $50 each. This land was sold by George and Jane Reeder to Samuel Landes on Nov. 16, 1842 for $400 (Putnam Co., Ind. Deed Book I, Page 400).

Jane Reeder is reported to have been the first adult buried in the New Providence Cemetery in Putnam Co., Ind. No tombstone has been found. George Reeder moved his family to Pike Co., Ill. where his son, Thomas, lived and died there shortly after the death of his wife. The children returned on their own to Putnam Co., Ind. where they were placed in homes of their mother's relatives, the Sherrills."

George married Jane Sherrill, daughter of Thomas M. Sherrill and Sarah _____, 2 Nov 1818 in Washington, TN. Jane was born about 1790 in Blount, TN, died in Nov 1842 in Putnam, IN about age 52, and was buried in Cemetery, New Providence, Putnam, IN.

Children from this marriage were:

- Military Pension: 10 Jan 1881, Clay, IN. Civil War Pension Pension Application of John H. Reeder, Federal Archives, # 318,395.

On 10 January 1881, John Reeder appeared before Notary Public Oscar I. Dunagan and made his statement regarding his service in the Civil War. He was fifty years old, a resident of Centre Point, Clay County, Indiana. He lived in Brazil for five years before his enlistment on 5 May 1864 as a corporal of Co. 'K' 133rd Regt. Indiana Infantry Volunteers. At that time John Reeder followed the trade of wagon maker. Just one year before enlisting he moved to Centre Point and worked as a carpenter for a while and as a cabinet maker for the rest of the time. Since his discharge he continued to follow the trade of cabinet maker, kept the United States Post Office, and 'notions, groceries and provisions' and is still doing so. He served in July of 1864 in Bridgeport, Alabama where he first became disabled with rheumatism in the knees and ankle joints. The examining surgeon's certificate dated 9 June 1882 described John H. Reeder in detail. He was 5'9' tall, weighed 140 pounds, had a light complexion, was 53 years old, had a pulse of 98, and respiration of 19. 'Find the left leg atrophied and adduction of left foot. Left thigh smaller than the right, an inch and half in circumference. The phalanges are flexed and articulation tender. The condyles [?] are sore at each knee, and claimant walks lame and unsteady. Disability 3/4, 3rd grade.'

Absalom B. Wheeler and William Kress swore to his condition as they too served as first lieutenants at Bridgeport, Alabama. 'From exposure while in duty on said day and night being in the rain all day and forced to sleep on ground at night - the next morning applicants lower limbs were much swollen and especially his knees which rendered him unfit for duty for a time and since said exposure has contracted as a result rheumatism which has continuously affected him - so that at times he is unable to do anything.'

Lieutenant Wheeler further swore to the following: 'That he was never treated in any hospital by a Surgeon for the reason his Lieutenant A. B. Wheeler of Co. 'K' 133d Regt. Ind. Inftry Vols. would not permit him to be removed from command to the hospital, he believing the Surgeon incompetent and the accommodations inadequate.'

Doctor F. B. McCullough stated in Sarah Jenkins Reeder's application for widow's pension that 'I was called to treat John H. Reeder Mar. 8th, 1883. I found him suffering from subacute Rheumatism complicated with heart disease which is a common thing with this disease and also with symptoms of Pneumonia which soon developed into a severe form which terminated in Death in ten days. He was not entirely free from Rheumatism at any time for years prior to the setting in of Pneumonia. The combination of these diseases produced death the first and leading disease was Rheumatism and had it not been from the Effect of this I do not think the Pneumonia would have caused death.'

- Cause of Death: 17 Mar 1883, Clay, IN. Pneumonia, heart disease, injuries from war

- Biography:
William Francis Yocom, attorney at law, Staunton, Ind., was born in Dick Johnson Township September 14, 1847, and is the fourth in a family of ten children, nine of whom are living. His father, Isom Yocum, came to this county from Kentucky in 1832. His early education was limited to the common schools, but being ambitious and persevering he gained by hard study a superior education. He has been a teacher in the public schools of this county fifteen years, and is highly esteemed. In 1872, he began the study of law, and in 1874 was admitted to the bar, and commenced practicing. March 19, 1874, he married Mary J. Reeder, it being her twentieth birthday.

They have five children-- Clarence Lilbert, born October 16, 1874; Henry Crawford, December 2, 1875; Roswell Dale, December 18, 1877; Maud D., October 6, 1879; Bessie Pearl, April 31, 1883. Mr. Yocom is identified with the political interests of the Democratic party, being one of their most prominent workers. He was Deputy Sheriff of Clay County from 1875 to 1877. While he was holding this office, the county records were moved from Bowling Green to Brazil. Since 1877, he has practiced law in Staunton.' (Counties of Clay and Owen, Indiana. Historical and Biographical. Charles Blanchard, Editor, 1884.)

Descendants of George Washington Reeder

'William F. Yocum, native of Clay county, son of Isom Yocum, born September 14, 1847; acquired a good common school education, and taught successfully in the public schools of this county and in the state of Illinois for a period of ten or twelve years. In 1872 he began reading law and two years later was admitted to the bar. On the 19th day of March, 1874, he married Mary J. Reeder, on her twentieth birthday, an assistant teacher in the Staunton schools, of which he was the principal. For the years 1875-'76 he was deputy sheriff under his uncle, Jesse Yocum. Succeeding this term of service he engaged in the practice of law at Staunton. In 1890-'91 he served for a time as deputy auditor under his brother, Matthew R. Yocum. He died July 13, 1892, aged 44 years, 9 months and 29 days, survived by his wife and five children--three sons and two daughters. Mr. Yocum was a man of good native ability and liberal acquirements, much above the average as an instructor and disciplinarian.'

Note: The seven children of Thomas M. Sherrill and his wife, Sarah, of Putnam Co., IN are correctly listed in your website. We know about Sarah because Sarah, wife of Thomas M. Sherrill, is buried in New Providence Cemetery in Putnam Co., IN. She died 8 Sept. 1844, age 71 years. We have no proof of where Thomas M. Sherrill was buried. He deeded land to another church after Sarah died. Was he a member of that church and did it have a cemetery? I don't know. We cannot prove where he was buried but know where Sarah was buried. I recommend correcting Thomas M. Sherrill's place of burial and you can add that for Sarah. I have no indication of a maiden name for Sarah. The children are documented in the estate of Thomas M. Sherrill. J. Lamb

Second Generation (Children)

99. Jane Sherrill (*Thomas M.*¹) was born about 1790 in Blount, TN, died in Nov 1842 in Putnam, IN about age 52, and was buried in Cemetery, New Providence, Putnam, IN.

Jane married George Washington Reeder, son of George Reeder and Unknown, 2 Nov 1818 in Washington, TN. George was born about 1790 in Tennessee and died about 1843 in Pike, IL about age 53.

General Notes: Reeder Newsletter, 1986, submitted by Jay G. Lamb, Box 745, Bartlesville, OK, 74005.

"Included in information received from Mrs. G. A. Reeder by Charles Wells Reeder and included in his collection at the Ohio State Library, Columbus, Ohio is the following: One Reeder came from Germany and settled in Tennessee - Had a Powder mill - was blown up - had 2 sons, Geo. and Wm. Wm. stayed in Jonesborough Tenn. Geo. moved to Ind. - had 4 sons. Thomas (4), Wm (6), & John (4), & Joseph (9 all in Cass Mo.)

Descendants of Thomas M. Sherrill

The origin of this information is not known. Thomas did have four children by his first marriage. William and John did have the number of children shown; however, Joseph had 12 children. Interestingly Elizabeth, daughter of George reported to have said that her father sometimes spoke German to entertain the children, but would not allow them to speak German.

A grandson of William, son of George, wrote to Mr. Truman A. Reeder of Feb. 14, 1956 the following: Grandfather knew that he had a relative by the name of Jesse Reeder that drowned in the Delaware [sic] R. while on a fishing trip. Jesse was in the line of uncle or great uncle I can't remember which. If I remember correctly, Jesse [sic] father was a Charles Reeder.

The "History of Cass and Bates Counties, Missouri", 1883, page 544 states that George Reeder, father of Joseph M. Reeder, was a native of Georgia. However, census enumerations of George Reeder's children indicate that their father was born in N. C., Tenn. and Va.

Washington Co., Tenn. records copied by the W.P.A. include tax lists, 1814-1819. George Reeder, 1 WP [white person], is listed in Capt. Brown's Co. for 1817 through 1819.

Washington Co., Tenn., Will Book 1, Page 197 and actual will at the courthouse and County Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions 1829-1831, copied by the W.P.A., show that Elizabeth Webb's will dated 23 Dec. 1827 was witnessed by John Rose, George Reeder and Allen T. Rose. The will was proven in court on 13 July 1829 by oaths of John Rose and Allen T. Rose, two of the subscribing witnesses. In Carter Co., Tenn. on 12 Jan. 1811, a Mary Reeder married John Rose. He was likely the above John Rose and the one later in Putnam Co., Ind. and Clay Co., Ind. Mary Reeder, his wife, could have been related to George Reeder.

Microfilm of records for Deer Creek Church, Putnam Co., Ind., at the Indiana State Library, Indianapolis, Ind., indicate that Jane Reeder [sic] became a member in November 1829. Later (probably in 1831) John Rose and Polly Rose became members. Records of Mill Creek Church, Putnam Co., Ind. owned by Mr. Worth M. Buis, Indianapolis, Ind., show that Jane Reeder joined that new church in April 1830 and that she had joined another church (New Providence Baptist Church) approximately February [sic] 1840.

Records of the Former General Land Office, now in the National Archives show cash certificate file numbers 31307 for the NE 1/4 of NW 1/4 Sec. 36, Twp 13N, R 3W and 32398 for NW 1/4 of NW 1/4 Sec. 36, Twp 13N, R 3W, both in the name of George Reeder, dated Dec. 29, 1836 and Aug. 21, 1837, respectively, issued at Crawfordsville, Ind., for $50 each. This land was sold by George and Jane Reeder to Samuel Landes on Nov. 16, 1842 for $400 (Putnam Co., Ind. Deed Book I, Page 400).

Jane Reeder is reported to have been the first adult buried in the New Providence Cemetery in Putnam Co., Ind. No tombstone has been found. George Reeder moved his family to Pike Co., Ill. where his son, Thomas, lived and died there shortly after the death of his wife. The children returned on their own to Putnam Co., Ind. where they were placed in homes of their mother's relatives, the Sherrills."

!NOTE: HISTORY OF CLAY CO. INDIANA on page 302-3 by William Travis of Middlebury, Vol. 1 and 2, reprinted by Clay Co. Historical Society and published by Genealogical Publishing Co. of Chicago in 1909. Ezekiel Jenkins was born in Virginia, January 24, 1795, a son of William and Henrietta Lewis Jenkins. In an early period in his life he went to Kentucky and lived there for several years, coming then to Owen County, Indiana, where he owned a farm. From Owen County in 1834 he came to Clay County and bought eighty acres of timber land in section 15, Sugar Ridge Twp., which he cleared and improved, but after living there for seven years he sold the farm and entered one hundred and twenty acres from the government in section 10 of the same twp. This land was also covered with timber, but he in time cut away the trees and placed it under an excellent state of cultivation, spending the remainder of his life there and dying on the 22nd day of Sept 1869. He had married in Kentucky Henrietta Woodsmall, who was born in that state February 28, 1792, a daughter of John and ? Preston Woodsmall, also of that state. Mrs. Jenkins died on the 22nd of Sept, 1868, just one year to the day before her husband.

!OCCUPATION: Farmer.

!NOTE: Blanchard, Charles. COUNTIES OF CLAY and OWEN INDIANA and published by Battey and Co. in 1884. Ezekiel Jenkins is a Virginian and Henrietta his wife a Kentuckian of Irish descent. They came to Indiana in 1823, settling at Rattlesnake Creek, in Owen Co., where they lived eleven years. Then they moved to Sugar Ridge Twp., Clay Co., where Ezekiel cleared up wild land and made a home. After a time he sold this and bought 120 acres, covered with fallen timber, half a mile from Center Point, where he lived until his death, which occurred 22 SEPT 1869 (page 480). Sugar Ridge Twp., Ezekiel Jenkins was an early settler. He settled in the eastern part of the twp. on land he afterward sold to George Grimes. Later he moved near the center part, where he now lives (page 261). An orchard on Ezekiel Jenkins' farm was set out in an early day, and several trees of which bear fruit at this present time (page 262).^{21, 23}

!OBIT: THE AMES INTELLIGENCER--Page 8, col. #4--Mrs. Eliza Jenkins--The death of Mrs. Eliza Jenkins at Ontario, Aug. 2, 1909, removes from among us one of Story County's oldest pioneers. Mrs. Jenkins came here in 1852. She was the daughter of one of the soldiers of the War of 1812, John Hussong, who served through the war in the army of the South under General Jackson and who died at his home near Ontario, Feb. 12, 1861. Mrs. Jenkins was a woman of ability and was a conselor for all of her friends. While during recent years she was unable to leave her home, often her friends frequently gathered to talk with her and to visit and she was an inspiration to all who knew her. Mrs. Jenkins was born in Knox Co. Tenn. on August 27, 1823. When quite a young girl she moved with her parents to Indiana where she grew to womanhood. She was married on July 6, 1843 to James Pricey Jenkins. When she and her husband came to Story County in 1853 she settled on a farm near Ontario before that village had been named and she had continued her residence here since that time. Her husband enlisted in the war of the Rebellion where he gave his life in the defense of the flag. She was the mother of nine children, five of whom are living; Emelin Crumwell Jenkins of Russell County, Kansas, Sarah Jane Dickenson of Ontario, E. Jenkins of Gilbert, Eliza Truesdale of Graettinger and William Jenkins of Alta, Iowa. Four of the children passed to the great beyond, John Feb. 13, 1863; Rosie, Feb. 16, 1863; Jessie, Dec. 28, 1870 and Marivia Ann, May 12, 1908. The funeral services were conducted at Ontario yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Johnson, pastor of the United Brethren Church. In his obit Mr. Johnson said that Mrs. Jenkins always lived faithful to God and believed in the risen Saviour and was satisfied to trust him in her hour of death. She was a faithful wife and a loving mother.

On 10 January 1881, John Reeder appeared before Notary Public Oscar I. Dunagan and made his statement regarding his service in the Civil War. He was fifty years old, a resident of Centre Point, Clay County, Indiana. He lived in Brazil for five years before his enlistment on 5 May 1864 as a corporal of Co. 'K' 133rd Regt. Indiana Infantry Volunteers. At that time John Reeder followed the trade of wagon maker. Just one year before enlisting he moved to Centre Point and worked as a carpenter for a while and as a cabinet maker for the rest of the time. Since his discharge he continued to follow the trade of cabinet maker, kept the United States Post Office, and 'notions, groceries and provisions' and is still doing so. He served in July of 1864 in Bridgeport, Alabama where he first became disabled with rheumatism in the knees and ankle joints. The examining surgeon's certificate dated 9 June 1882 described John H. Reeder in detail. He was 5'9" tall, weighed 140 pounds, had a light complexion, was 53 years old, had a pulse of 98, and respiration of 19. 'Find the left leg atrophied and adduction of left foot. Left thigh smaller than the right, an inch and half in circumference. The phalanges are flexed and articulation tender. The condyles [?] are sore at each knee, and claimant walks lame and unsteady. Disability 3/4, 3rd grade.'

Absalom B. Wheeler and William Kress swore to his condition as they too served as first lieutenants at Bridgeport, Alabama. 'From exposure while in duty on said day and night being in the rain all day and forced to sleep on ground at night - the next morning applicants lower limbs were much swollen and especially his knees which rendered him unfit for duty for a time and since said exposure has contracted as a result rheumatism which has continuously affected him - so that at times he is unable to do anything.'

Lieutenant Wheeler further swore to the following: 'That he was never treated in any hospital by a Surgeon for the reason his Lieutenant A. B. Wheeler of Co. 'K' 133d Regt. Ind. Inftry Vols. would not permit him to be removed from command to the hospital, he believing the Surgeon incompetent and the accommodations inadequate.'

Doctor F. B. McCullough stated in Sarah Jenkins Reeder's application for widow's pension that 'I was called to treat John H. Reeder Mar. 8th, 1883. I found him suffering from subacute Rheumatism complicated with heart disease which is a common thing with this disease and also with symptoms of Pneumonia which soon developed into a severe form which terminated in Death in ten days. He was not entirely free from Rheumatism at any time for years prior to the setting in of Pneumonia. The combination of these diseases produced death the first and leading disease was Rheumatism and had it not been from the Effect of this I do not think the Pneumonia would have caused death.'

- Cause of Death: 17 Mar 1883, Clay, IN. Pneumonia, heart disease, injuries from war

His parents were Ezekiel and Henrietta Woodsmall Jenkins, the father a Virginian, the mother a Kentuckian, of Irish descent. William T. had charge of his father's farm twelve years before his father's death, and still cultivates it. He has a nice frame house of six rooms, hall and pantry; also good outbuildings, barn 40 X 40. His farm is well watered and stocked, finely located within a half a mile of town. Mr. Jenkins' opportunities for education were meager, only going to school in winter in bad weather, but he has learned much at home. He was raised a Whig, but is now a Republican. He has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church 23 years. He has never sought office, but has been elected to different offices, and declined to serve for lack of time or inclination. He has been a member of the School Board. He was married, April 17, 1862, to Naomi, daughter of George O'Brien. They have had six children--James P., Laura A., Sarah E., Emery S., Samantha G., and Cordelia B. (page 480).

Member of School Board at Center Point for several terms. His wife died at the age of 43 in 1883. His has 4 daughters and 2 sons. His children are James P., Laura A. wife of S.E. Brown, Sadie E. who died at 24 years of age wife of James D. Hicks, Emery S., Gertrude wife of Rev. Charles F. Spray, who is minister of Methodist Episcopal Church in Wisconsin (page 96).

!NOTE: Travis, William. HISTORY OF CLAY CO. INDIANA and published by Lewis Publishing Co. in 1090, Vol. 1 and 2. NY and Chicago. William Thomas Jenkins was born in Owen Co., Indiana, June 30, 1832, but the greater part of his life has been spent in Clay Co., Indiana, and he is now living on the farm on which he spent his boyhood days and the remainder of his life. The boyhood days of William T. Jenkins were spent on the home farm in Sugar Ridge Twp., and he did the most of the clearing of this place, as his father was then in advanced years and previously had spent much of his time as a raftsman on the Wabash and White Rivers. The son remained at home with his parents until their deaths, and afterward continued to farm the place, and he has never lived elsewhere since the founding of the family here many years ago. He in time bought 32 and 1/2 acres in section 13, Sugar Ridge Twp., also 32 acres in section 9, which he owns in addition to eighty acres of the old homestead. He married on the 17 APRIL 1864, Naomi O'Brien, who was born in Hancock Co., Indiana of George W. and Sarah Brittan O'Brien, natives of Ohio. Mrs. Jenkins was born on the 10th of SEPT 1842, and died on the 4 FEB 1883, leaving the following children: James P. whose home is in Washington Twp.; Laura, who became the wife of Elsworth Brown, of Sugar Ridge Twp.; Sarah Jane, who became the wife of Duffield Hicks and is now deceased; Samantha Gertrude, the wife of Charles F. Sprague, of Wisconsin; Emery S., who is with his father; and Cordelia Belle, the wife of James Burns, the county auditor of Clay Co., and their home is in Brazil (page 302). Mr. Jenkins is a staunch advocate of temperance and has never used tobacco or liquor in any form. He is an earnest and worthy member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and is a Republican in his political affiliations (page 303).^{21, 23}

302 HISTORY OF CLAY COUNTY

WILLIAM THOMAS JENKINS was born in Owen county, Indiana, June 30, 1832, but the greater part of his life has been spent in Clay county, Indiana, and he is now living on the farm on which he spent his boyhood days and the remainder of his life. His father, Ezekiel Jenkins, was born in Virginia, January 24, 1795, a son of William and Henrietta (Lewis) Jenkins. In an early period in his life he went to Kentucky and lived there for several years, coming then to Owen county, Indiana, where he owned a farm.

From Owen county in 1834 he came to Clay county and bought eighty acres of timber land in section 15, Sugar Ridge township, which he cleared and improved, but after living there for seven years he sold the farm and entered one hundred and twenty acres from the government in section 10 of the same township. This land was also covered with timber, but he in time cut away the trees and placed it under an excellent state of cultivation, spending the remainder of his life there and dying on the 22d of September, 1869.

He had married in Kentucky Henrietta Woodsmall, who was born in that state February 28, 1792, a daughter of John and (Preston) Woodsmall, also of that state.

Mrs. Jenkins died on the 22d of September, 1868, just one year to the day before her husband. William Thomas was the ninth born of their ten children, two sons and eight daughters, and the only one now living. His brother died in St. Louis, Missouri, as a soldier during the Civil war.

The boyhood days of William T. Jenkins were spent on the home farm in Sugar Ridge township, and he did the most of the clearing of this place, as his father was then in advanced years and previously had spent much of his time as a raftsmen on the Wabash and White rivers. The son remained at home with his parents until their deaths, and afterward continued to farm the place, and he has never lived elsewhere since the founding of the family here many years ago. He in time bought thirty-two and a half acres in section 13, Sugar Ridge township, also thirty-two acres in section 9, which he owns in addition to eighty acres of the old homestead.

He married on the 17th of April, 1864, Naomi S. O'Brien, who was born in Hancock county, Indiana, a daughter of George W. and Sarah (Brittan) O'Brien, natives of Ohio. Mrs. Jenkins was born on the 10th of September, 1842, and died on the 4th of February, 1883, leaving the following children: James P., whose home is in Washington township; Laura, the wife of Elsworth Brown, of Sugar Ridge township; Sarah Jane, who became the wife of Duffield Hicks and is now deceased; Samantha Gertrude, the wife of Charles F. Sprague, of Wisconsin; Emery S., who is with his father; and Cordelia Belle, the wife of James Burns, the county auditor of Clay county, and their home is in Brazil.
